Section A – General Rules for All Livestock Projects at the Warren County Fair

Exhibitor & Entry Rules

- 1) To be eligible to participate in the fair, the exhibitor must be a current member in 4-H or a participating youth organization and all projects must be on their 4-H enrollment form.
- 2) All 4-H members taking livestock projects (including horse, donkey & mule) must participate in livestock project interviews to be eligible to show and sell at the fair.
- 3) All livestock fair entries must be entered online by June 17 at 4:30 p.m. Late entries will be accepted until June 20 at a cost of $10 per project per day late. Animals not entered will not be permitted to show or sell.
- 4) Exhibitor Conduct Policy: Exhibitors are required to conduct themselves in a courteous and orderly manner. Harassment, profanity and unsportsmanlike conduct by exhibitors and their attendants towards fair personnel and judges will not be tolerated. Any violation warrants expulsion from the fairgrounds, possible withholding of monies and exclusion from participation in future Warren County Fairs.

Livestock Rules

- 1) All animals must have been completely and fully owned (as evidenced by a bill of sale or registration papers), including all showing rights, and in complete and continual care of the exhibitor on and after the deadline for that project. Consult that specie's section of the fair book for ownership deadlines. Ownership is considered lost if, after the designated ownership date, the animal is consigned or sold through an auction or through any other transaction, even if the animal is bought back by the exhibitor. The Warren County Agricultural Society reserves the right to inspect livestock to verify continual care and ownership. Failure to allow these inspections may disqualify the exhibitor from current and future Warren County Fairs.

Please Note the Following Ownership Clarification: All livestock must have one owner that cannot be changed after the ownership deadline for that species. Livestock cannot be co-owned by multiple family members. Animals registered with multiple owners will be ineligible for the Warren County Fair. This is an Ohio Department of Agriculture rule for Junior Fair livestock projects. Every livestock project can only have one owner.

Exceptions to this rule:

- Any market animal (beef, goat, sheep, or swine) that dies within 30 days after the county tagging date may be replaced within one week after the death, subject to approval by the OSU Extension office. The OSU Extension office must be notified within two days after the death and the animal must be verified as dead by fair personnel. Replacement animals are ineligible for Grand, Reserve or Division Championships, but may show in class and sell.
- 2) Livestock Entry for Showmanship and Fun Shows: Livestock must be entered and shown in a regular class to be eligible for showmanship and fun shows. For example: Goats must be entered and shown in a market, Boer breeding, dairy goat, pygmy goat, fiber goat, cart, or pack class to be eligible for showmanship and the fun shows. Beef must be entered and shown as a market animal, feeder calf or breeding heifer to be eligible for showmanship.
 - 3) Livestock Care: Exhibitors are required to keep their livestock fed and watered in a manner that properly cares for their projects. Exhibitors must keep their stalls/pens/cages clean during the fair. Fair personnel have the right to require exhibitors to feed or water their animals or to clean their stalls/pens/cages. Exhibitors failing to comply may be ineligible to sell in the Junior Fair Livestock Sale.
 - 4) Animal Behavior: Fair personnel have the right to remove any animal from the fairgrounds that is deemed to be a danger to exhibitors, fair personnel or to people attending the fair. Dismissed animals are ineligible to sell in the sale. Exhibitors must demonstrate the ability to show their own animals without endangering themselves or others.
 - 5) Animal Vision: Every animal brought onto the fairgrounds must have full vision in at least one eye or they will be sent home. Market animals will be ineligible to show and sell.
 - 6) Animal Structural Soundness: Livestock must be considered structurally sound enough to survive loading and transport to a slaughter facility in large trailers with other animals to be eligible to sell in the livestock sale. Determinations of acceptable soundness will be made by the fair veterinarian; species show committee and the Senior Fair Board. Livestock deemed as too unsound to survive loading and transport will be scratched from the sale and must be taken home by the exhibitor. (Exception for market hogs, which must be immediately transported to a local harvest facility for processing).
 - 7) Force feeding, drench guns and bottle/nipple feeding of liquid diets are not permitted unless done as instructed by the fair veterinarian for the health of the animal. Violators will be ineligible to show and sell. Note: Liquid and paste feeds and supplements in tubes inserted into the mouth for ingestion IS considered force feeding and is not permitted.
 - 8) Animals must always remain in the barn area and are not permitted on the midway of the fairgrounds.
 - 9) Any animal that receives medical treatment at the fair from the fair veterinarian with a drug that has a withdrawal time must be scratched from the show and sale, including non-market animals (feeder cattle and breeding animals) and must immediately be removed from the fairgrounds.
 - 10) No personal or 4-H club livestock scales are permitted in the barns or wash areas. If brought to the fair, they must be located outside of those areas. (NEW for 2023)

Fair Stalling Rules

- 1) Stall/pen assignments will be done by fair personnel. All 4-H clubs will be stalled/penned in the same area. Animals must be displayed in their assigned stalls.

- 2) Exhibitors may not begin to set-up, save grooming chute spots, tie-out stalls, or tack space until 12:00 Noon on the Friday before the fair.
- 3) Exhibitor signage may only be displayed on their own stall/pen.
- 4) Only animals entered for exhibition at the fair are permitted to be stalled on fairgrounds.
- 5) No exhibitor tents or awnings permitted in livestock barns or in areas surrounding the barns, including the road between Building C & Building D.

Exceptions:

- a) See the tent rules for sheep and goats in their fair book section.
- b) Tents/awnings may be used for grooming beef cattle on show days, but they must be located at the outer edge of the blacktop, must be anchored securely, and must be removed at the conclusion of the show.

General Show Rules

- 1) Exhibitors are responsible for following all Ohio Department of Agriculture and Warren County Fair rules regarding ethics, tampering, misrepresentation, and other laws related to exhibiting livestock. Consult the Senior Fair Book section for a full list of these rules.
- 2) All champion animals are subject to drug testing immediately following the show before they leave the show ring. The Warren County Agricultural Society reserves the right to test any animal exhibited at the fair.
- 3) Animals must be shown by their owner to place and sell, unless excused for medical reasons or if multiple animals are in the same class. Substitute showman must be an active Warren County 4-H member.
- 4) Animals must be groomed within a 30-foot radius of the barn areas and must always be visible.
- 5) Animals may not be scratched from the show after their show has started unless done due to animal behavior issues. Animals that are not shown are not permitted to be sold. Animals may not be scratched after they have shown in their class.

6) Prohibited Grooming Products & Practices:

The following grooming products and practices are NOT permitted at the Warren County Fair:

- Pigmented grooming products (paint, colored adhesive, powder sprays, whitening sprays, etc.)
- Hair thickening products (Powderful, etc.)
- FOR SWINE ONLY: Aerosol sprays, oils, powders, or anything that appears to be an oil or powder. Warren County is a water-only show for the entire week.
- The use of water, ice, or other externally (Cool Blue, etc.) or internally applied products that serve as a cooling agent during show preparation are strictly prohibited. No ice, ice packs, cold packs, cold compresses, cold water, wet towels, drizzling water, misters, etc. are permitted during show preparation unless prescribed to relieve heat stress or a medical condition diagnosed by the fair veterinarian. The fair veterinarian must be present when the treatment is applied. The use of fans without misters are permitted. (Rules Clarification from Previous Rule)

General Showmanship Rules

- 1) Exhibitors must sign-up for showmanship on their fair entry form.
- 2) Showmanship classes will be divided by age as of January 1, 2024. Classes will be divided at the discretion of the show committee.
- 3) Exhibitors must show their own Junior Fair project.
- 4) Only current class winners are eligible to compete for species showman of showmen. If the species winner declines to participate in the Grand Showman of Showmen Contest, the next highest placing exhibitor from the species showman class will be eligible.
- 5) Previous winners of the Grand Showman of Showmen contest are not eligible to participate in future Grand Showman of Showmen contests. Exhibitors may win the Grand Showman of Showmen contest only once in their lifetime, but they are still permitted to win individual species Showman of Showmen. If they win a species, then the reserve champion species showman of showmen would represent the department in the Grand Showman of Showmen contest.

Grand Showman of Showmen Contest

- 1) The following departments are eligible to have one participant in the Grand Showman of Showmen Contest if they meet the species/department showmanship participation numbers for the previous year and current Warren County Fair.

 - a. At least 12 participants that competed (not entries) in showmanship at the previous year's fair.
 - b. At least 12 entries for showmanship for the current fair.

An award will be presented to honor the Junior Fair Exhibitor that does the most outstanding job in their species during the 2022 Warren County Fair. Categories included in the calculation of the award will include conformation judging, showmanship, project interviews, skill-a-thon and herdsmanship. To be eligible for the award, exhibitors must compete in all categories, and they must sign-up for the premier exhibitor award on their fair entry.
